PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS To Be Held May 8, 2003

To Our Stockholders:

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Redwood Trust, Inc., a Maryland corporation (Company), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company (Annual Meeting) to be held on Thursday, May 8, 2003 at 11:00 a.m., Pacific Daylight Time, at the Acqua Hotel, 555 Redwood Highway, Mill Valley, California, and any adjournments thereof. This Proxy Statement, the accompanying proxy card, and the Notice of Annual Meeting are being provided to stockholders beginning on or about April 10, 2003.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Solicitation of Proxies

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company. The costs of this solicitation will be borne by the Company. Proxy solicitations will be made by mail, and also may be made by personal interview, telephone, facsimile transmission, and telegram on behalf of the Company by directors and officers of the Company. Banks, brokerage houses, nominees, and other fiduciaries will be requested to forward the proxy soliciting material to the beneficial owners and to obtain authorization for the execution of proxies. The Company will, upon request, reimburse such parties for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy materials to their beneficial owners. The Company does not expect to engage an outside firm to solicit votes, but if such a firm is engaged subsequent to the date of this Proxy Statement, the cost is estimated to be less than $10,000, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

Voting Rights

Holders of shares of the Company's common stock (Common Stock) at the close of business on March 31, 2003, the record date, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. On that date, 16,604,910 shares of Common Stock were outstanding. Each share of Common Stock outstanding on the record date is entitled to one vote on each matter presented at the Annual Meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of stockholders representing a majority of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. If a quorum is present, (i) a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting is required for election as a director, and (ii) for each other matter, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast with respect to such matter is required. Cumulative voting in the election of directors is not permitted. Abstentions are considered shares not voted, and therefore will have no legal effect on the outcome of matters presented at the Annual Meeting. Any shares held in street name for which the broker or nominee receives no instructions from the beneficial owner, and as to which such broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting authority under applicable New York Stock Exchange rules, will be considered as shares not entitled to vote and will therefore not be considered in the tabulation of the votes.

Voting of Proxies

Shares of the Common Stock represented by all properly executed (or otherwise designated) proxies received in time for the Annual Meeting will be voted in accordance with the choices specified in the proxies. Unless contrary instructions are indicated on the proxy, the shares will be voted FOR the election of the nominees named in this Proxy Statement as directors, and FOR the ratification of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's auditors.

Management and the Board of Directors of the Company know of no matters to be brought before the Annual Meeting other than as set forth herein. To date, no stockholders' proposals have been received by the Company. However, if any other matters of which management and Board of Directors of the Company are not now aware are presented properly to the stockholders for action, it is the intention of the proxy holders named in the enclosed proxy to vote in their discretion on all matters on which the shares represented by such proxy are entitled to vote.

Revocability of Proxy

The giving of the enclosed proxy does not preclude the right to vote in person should the stockholder giving the proxy so desire. A proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise by delivering a written statement to the Secretary of the Company that the proxy is revoked, by presenting to the Company a later-dated proxy, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Annual Report

The 2002 Annual Report including financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, which is being mailed to stockholders together with the Proxy Statement, contains financial and other information about the activities of the Company, but is not incorporated into this Proxy Statement and is not to be considered a part of these proxy soliciting materials.

The 2002 Annual Report includes the annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Any exhibits listed in the Form 10-K will be furnished upon request at the actual expense incurred by the Company in furnishing such exhibit. Any such requests should be directed to the Company's Secretary at the Company's executive office set forth in this Proxy Statement.

ITEM 1 — ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The nominees for two Class III directors and one Class II director of the Board of Directors are set forth below. Unless authorization is withheld, the persons named as proxies will vote FOR the nominees for directors listed below unless otherwise specified by the stockholder. In the event any nominee is unable or declines to serve as a director at the time of the Annual Meeting, the proxies will be voted for any nominee who shall be designated by the present Board of Directors to fill the vacancy. In the event that additional persons are nominated for election as directors, the proxy holders intend to vote all proxies received by them for the nominees listed below and against any other nominees. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors is not aware of any nominee who is unable or will decline to serve as director. The nominees listed below already are serving as directors of the Company.

It also includes fees paid by affiliates of the Company to certain executive officers as Board fees in 2000. In 2002, it also includes amounts accrued in an officer's deferred compensation account. The rate of accrual is set forth in the Deferred Compensation Plan and is based on the Company's performance on its portfolio during the year. The column does not include cash DERs paid on unexercised stock options.

Employment Agreements

The Company entered into new employment agreements with Messrs. Bull and Hansen in April 2003. Each agreement provides for a term through December 31, 2005 and is automatically extended for an additional year at the end of each year of the agreements until the individual officer reaches age 65, unless either party provides a prescribed prior written notice to the contrary. Each agreement provides for an annual base salary and for participation in an annual performance incentive plan and in a long-term incentive plan. Each agreement provides for the officer to receive his base salary and annual incentive compensation to the date of termination of the officer's employment by reason of death, disability or resignation, and to receive base compensation to the date of such termination for "cause" (as defined in the agreement). Each agreement also provides for the officer to receive severance payments in the event that the Company terminates the officer's employment without "cause" (as defined in the agreement) or the officer resigns for "good reason" (as defined in the agreement), including the occurrence of either such type of termination following a change of control of the Company. The severance payments are paid 50% immediately and 50% in monthly installments over the succeeding twelve months, in an aggregate amount equal to three times the officer's combined base salary and target annual bonus, each as in effect immediately prior to termination. All outstanding stock options and equity-related awards granted to the officer immediately vest upon either such type of termination. In addition, for stock options granted before December 31, 2002, the officer receives the sum of Dividend Equivalent Rights that would have been payable over the three year period following termination of employment under the provisions of the stock option grant agreement. Dividend Equivalent Right payments related to stock options granted on or after December 31, 2002 shall be treated in the same manner, unless the grant agreements for such stock options provide a different formula for the Dividend Equivalent Right payments. The officers are entitled to an excise tax gross-up if there are excise taxes payable by the officer on the value of severance benefits related to a change of control. All severance benefits under the agreements require the officer to execute a release agreement.

Each of the agreements with Messrs. Bull and Hansen also contains a non-compete provision prohibiting the officer from competing with the Company for a period of one year after termination of the officer's employment by the Company without "cause" (as defined in the agreement) or the officer's resignation for "good reason" (as defined in the agreement). In the event of a "change of control" (as such term is defined in Section 2(f) of the Redwood Trust, Inc. Executive Deferred Compensation Plan) in which the surviving or acquiring corporation does not assume outstanding stock options and equity-related awards or substitute similar options and equity-related awards, the officer's options and equity-related awards shall immediately vest and become exercisable if the officer's service with the Company has not terminated prior to the effective date of the change of control; provided, however, that such acceleration of vesting will only occur if the Company is not the surviving corporation or if shares of the Company's common stock are converted into or exchanged for other securities or cash.

The Company has also entered into employment agreements with each of Messrs. Nicholas, Sirkis, and Zagunis. Each agreement will remain in effect until terminated by either party. Each employment agreement provides for an annual base salary and for participation in a discretionary annual performance incentive plan. Each agreement provides for the officer to receive, in the event that the Company terminates his employment without cause, or if he resigns for good reason (as defined in the agreement, including the occurrence of a Change of Control of the Company as defined in the agreement), an amount, payable in three equal monthly installments, equal to the greater of 50% of his then current annual base salary, or 50% of his 1999 annual base salary plus his 1999 incentive bonus). Each agreement contains a non-compete provision prohibiting the officer from competing with the Company for a period of three months following termination of employment. The Company will likely enter into new employment contracts with these individuals effective for 2004.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

There were no relationships or related transactions between the Company and any affiliate parties that are required to be reported in this Proxy Statement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous or future filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that might incorporate future filings, including this Proxy Statement, in whole or in part, the following reports of the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee and the Performance Graph shall not be incorporated by reference into any such filings.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

During 2002, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors reviewed and reassessed its Audit Committee Charter as required. This charter, which is included as Appendix A, incorporates standards for audit committees set forth by both the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). The Company's revised Audit Committee Charter was approved by the full Board of Directors at the March 20, 2003 Board meeting. The Audit Committee will continue to review its Charter and request Board approval on an annual basis, and intends to include the most recent charter as an appendix to all future proxy statements.

The Audit Committee is composed of four directors, each of whom is independent as defined by the rules of the New York Stock Exchange and the Securities and Exchange Commission. As presented in greater detail in the Audit Committee Charter, the Audit Committee's responsibilities generally fall within the following four areas: (i) monitoring the integrity of the Company's financial statements, (ii) providing an open avenue of communication between the independent auditors and the Board of Directors, including review of the auditors' independence, scope of audit and related fees, and interim and year-end audited financial statements, (iii) retaining and terminating the independent auditors, and (iv) informing the Board of any legal, regulatory, or compliance issues that may have material impact on the financial statements.

The Audit Committee met with both management and the independent auditors to discuss the interim and year-end financial statements and reports prior to their issuance. Such meetings included an overview of the preparation and review of such financial statements and a discussion of any significant accounting issues. Management and the independent auditors advised the Audit Committee that all statements were prepared under generally accepted accounting principles.

The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors matters required to be discussed under Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communications with Audit Committees. In addition, the Audit Committee received from the independent auditors written disclosures and a letter regarding the auditors' independence as required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. Such disclosures and other matters relating to the auditors' independence were reviewed by the Audit Committee and discussed with the independent auditors. The Audit Committee determined the non-audit services provided by the independent auditors were compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence. The auditors did not provide any financial information systems design and implementation services.

The scope of the audit was discussed with the Audit Committee prior to the audit. The Audit Committee discussed the results of the audit with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee also discussed with management and the independent auditors the adequacy of the Company's internal controls, policies, systems, and management's ongoing progress to further strengthen such areas as appropriate.

Based on its review of the financial statements, and its discussions with management and the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the full Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements for fiscal year ending December 31, 2002 be included in the Company's Annual Report and Form 10-K for filing with the SEC.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (Committee) is comprised exclusively of independent directors. The Committee acts on behalf of the Board of Directors in administering the Company's executive compensation plans and programs for the Named Executive Officers. Frederic W. Cook & Co., a nationally recognized compensation consulting firm, reports directly to the Committee as a third-party advisor. The Committee met four times during 2002, at which a portion of three meetings were in executive session. The Committee also held periodic briefings with the full Board to discuss its activities, and report on its evaluation of the Company's two top officers (i.e., the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and the President).

The Committee seeks to: (i) attract and retain highly qualified and productive executives; (ii) motivate executives to enhance the overall performance and profitability of the Company; (iii) reinforce the linkage between the interests of the Company's shareholders and the executives by encouraging Company ownership by executives and tying long-term incentive awards to shareholder value creation; and (vi) ensure that compensation levels are both externally competitive and internally equitable.

The compensation of the Company's executives consists of salary, annual cash and/or deferred bonus awards, and stock options with Dividend Equivalent Rights (DERs) granted under the Company's shareholder-approved Incentive Stock Plan. Compensation is reviewed annually. The Committee's philosophy is to set salaries in the median market range, allowing for differentiation consistent with the overall responsibilities of the position and the capabilities and experience of the individual. The Committee awards cash bonuses to senior executives based 75% upon overall Company financial performance and 25% on individual performance. In recent years, the Company financial measure has been adjusted return on equity. The primary measure of individual achievement has been progress relative to various strategic and operating objectives established at the beginning of the year. Grants of stock options and DERs are based on practices of comparable companies and on the Committee's assessment of the contributions made by each executive to the enhancement of the Company's long-term value.

During 2002, the Committee conducted a detailed review of the relevant executive compensation practices of a number of financial institutions, financial services companies, REITs, real estate companies, and mortgage companies. Many of the companies used for competitive executive pay comparisons were the same as those included in the industry peer group in the Performance Graph that appears later. Based upon this analysis, the Committee concluded that the Company's executive compensation program reflects high corporate governance standards in its administrative process, is competitive in comparison to other comparable companies, and is appropriate in supporting the Company's long-term objectives.

Mr. Bull (Chairman and Chief Executive Officer) and Mr. Hansen (President) each received a salary of $390,000 in 2002, and are receiving a salary increase of 5% to $410,000 in 2003. The Committee believes that the current salary levels approximate competitive medians for these positions. For performance during 2002, the Committee awarded a bonus of $798,918 to each Mr. Bull and Mr. Hansen. Of the total bonus to each individual, $240,366 was mandatorily credited to a deferred stock account for distribution not prior to May 1, 2006. These bonus awards exceeded the target or normal bonus amounts that are set to approximate competitive median bonuses. The Committee's primary considerations when awarding 2002 cash bonuses above the target levels were: (1) record return on equity performance, (2) strong cash flow generation, (3) improved operating efficiencies and capabilities, and (4) satisfactory achievement of other operating objectives. In December 2002, the Committee granted 63,000 stock options each to Mr. Bull and to Mr. Hansen. These ten-year options were struck at the fair market value of $27.05 per share and have related cash DERs attached that are payable until the earlier of four years or the date of stock option exercise. The Committee believes that the annualized value of these grants is in the median competitive range.

For the three remaining Named Executive Officers, 2002 salaries ranged from $210,000 to $220,000. Above-target annual bonuses were earned by all three individuals, with a portion comparable to the two top officers credited in deferred stock awards to be paid at the end of three years. While the salaries approximate competitive median levels, the resulting total cash compensation is above median because of the strong Company and individual performances for the year. These three Named Executive Officers also received ten-year stock options with four years of cash DERs attached, reflecting the same long-term incentive grant structure as awarded the two top officers.

The Committee is aware of the limitations imposed by Section 162(m) of the Code on the deductibility for tax of certain forms of compensation in excess of $1 million per executive. The Company's stock option grants generally meet the requirements for full tax deductibility. However, certain other elements of the Company's compensation plans may not meet the tax law requirements for full tax deductibility because they allow the Committee to exercise discretion in setting compensation. The Committee believes that it is in the Company's best interest to retain discretion in determining executive compensation, and the Committee reserves the right to implement compensation plans that might not be fully tax deductible. The Committee believes the cost impact of any loss of tax deductibility was immaterial to the Company in 2002.

REDWOOD TRUST, INC.*Audit Committee Charter*Organization

There shall be a committee of the Board of Directors of Redwood Trust, Inc. (Redwood) to be known as the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall be comprised entirely of independent directors. An “independent” director is based on the definitions regulated by law or rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) or applicable stock exchange. In addition, for this purpose, an “independent” director shall mean a director who does not take part in the management of Redwood and is free of any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, would interfere with his or her exercise of independent judgment as an Audit Committee member.

The membership of the Audit Committee shall consist of no fewer than three independent members of the Board of Directors upon recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee. The members shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and may be removed by the Board of Directors at any time.

All members of the Audit Committee shall have a working familiarity with basic finance and accounting practices, be financially literate, and at least one member of the committee shall have accounting or related financial management expertise.

Responsibilities

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changes in conditions, rules, and regulations and to ensure to the directors and shareholders that the corporate accounting, financial reporting, and control practices of Redwood are in accordance in all material respects with all appropriate requirements. The duties and responsibilities of a member of the Audit Committee are in addition to those duties set out for a member of the Board of Directors.

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, will:

1. Provide an open avenue of communication between the auditors and the Board of Directors.
2. Review and update the Audit Committee’s charter at least annually.
3. Report Audit Committee actions to the Board of Directors with recommendations as may be deemed appropriate.

7. Prepare an Audit Committee Report for inclusion in the annual proxy statement that describes the Audit Committee's composition and responsibilities and how they were discharged.

8. Retain the auditors to be engaged (in some cases, subject to shareholder ratification), review their performance and terminate auditors (if deemed necessary and appropriate). The auditors shall report directly to the Audit Committee.

9. Obtain and review annually a formal written statement from the auditors describing (i) the firm's internal quality-control procedures, (ii) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review or peer review of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues, and (iii) all relationships between Redwood and the auditors. Discuss with the auditors any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the auditors' objectivity and independence.

10. Review and pre-approve the scope, terms, and related fees of all auditing services and permitted non-audit services provided by the auditors, subject to the de minimus exceptions for non-audit services which are approved by the Audit Committee prior to the completion of the audit.

11. Consider, in consultation with the auditors, the audit scope, and the audit plan of the auditors. Review with the auditors the coordination of all audit efforts to assure completeness of coverage, reduction of redundant efforts, and the effective use of all resources.

12. Consider and review with the auditors:

- a. Redwood's annual financial statements and related footnotes.
- b. The auditors' audit of the financial statements and their report thereon.
- c. Any significant changes required in the auditors' audit plans.
- d. Significant findings during the year and management's response thereto, including any serious difficulties or disputes with management encountered during the course of the audit.
- e. The adequacy of the disclosure controls and procedures in all Redwood's filings with the SEC.
- f. Other matters related to the conduct of the audit which are to be communicated to the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards including Auditing Standards No. 61 relating to the conduct of the audit.

14. Review and discuss reports from the auditors on:

a. All critical accounting policies and practices to be used.

b. All alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with management, ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatments preferred by the auditors.

c. Other material written communication between the auditor and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences.

15. Review with management and auditors the annual and interim financial reports before such reports are filed with the SEC or other regulators including Redwood's disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations". Review the earnings release, including any use of "pro forma" or "adjusted" non-GAAP information.

16. Review annually Redwood's internal audit plan. The plan shall include an assessment of the internal audit requirements, given appropriate consideration to the size and complexity of Redwood. The Audit Committee will engage internal auditors and other personnel for specified internal audit functions, as deemed appropriate.

17. Review with management and the auditors and report to the Board of Directors the effectiveness of Redwood's internal controls including discussing any significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect Redwood's ability to record, process, summarize, and report financial or other data, and identifying any material weaknesses in internal controls along with the steps planned to make necessary improvements. Review disclosures made to the Audit Committee by Redwood's CEO and CFO during their certification process for SEC filings.

18. Discuss with management and the auditors any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies and any published reports that raise material issues regarding Redwood's financial statements or accounting policies.

19. Inquire of management and the auditors about significant risks or exposures with respect to corporate accounting, reporting practices of Redwood, the quality and integrity of the financial reports and controls of Redwood, regulatory and accounting initiatives as well as off-balance sheet structures (if any) on Redwood's financial statements, and assess the steps management has taken to minimize such risks to Redwood and steps taken to disclose such information to the public.

20. Review and evaluate the lead partner of the external auditor team. Ensure the rotation of the lead partner as required by law and regulation. Consider whether, in order to assure continuing auditor independence, it is appropriate to adopt a policy of rotating the auditing firm on a regular basis.

21. Pre-approve Redwood's hiring of employees or former employees of the auditors who have previously participated in any capacity in the audit or other services provided to Redwood.

22. Discuss with Redwood's corporate counsel legal matters that may have a material impact on Redwood's financial statements or Redwood's compliance policies.

23. The Audit Committee shall have the power to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities. The Committee shall be empowered to independently retain counsel, accountants, or others to assist it in the conduct of any investigation or for any other reason deemed necessary and appropriate. Redwood shall provide funding for all services performed by auditors and other advisors at the request of the Audit Committee.

24. Establish procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission by employees to the Audit Committee concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters that may affect the integrity of Redwood's disclosures, financial reporting, accounting processes, compliance, or any other area. Ensure this process has been communicated to all employees at Redwood. Further establish procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints and concerns received regarding accounting, internal controls, auditing, or regulatory matters.

25. Delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more members when appropriate, including the authority to grant pre-approvals of audit and permitted non-audit services, review of interim financial statements and press releases prior to filing, provided that decisions of such subcommittee shall be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next meeting.

26. The Committee will perform such other functions as assigned by law, any applicable exchange rules and regulations, the SEC's or applicable stock exchange's rules and regulations, Redwood's charter or bylaws, or the Board of Directors.

Limitation of Audit Committee's Role

While the Audit Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Audit Committee to plan or conduct audits or establish internal controls or to determine that Redwood's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable rules and regulations. These are the responsibilities of management and the auditors.
